

Effective Prenatal Education

14, 15, 16, 17,
18 July
2008

9am—5pm each day

Please display at your workplace

Birth International offers you a unique opportunity to gain the necessary skills in leading pre-natal education groups. This 5 day program will enable you to:

- Develop skills in adult education, facilitation of groups and basic counselling
- Improve your presentation style
- Acquire innovative and exciting teaching strategies and activities
- Devise programs to meet the needs of a variety of client groups
- Incorporate the essentials of informed choice, parenting skills and evidence based care into your prenatal programs

This program is the only intensive course in Australia based on the core curriculum of the Graduate Diploma in Childbirth Education (no longer available). Numbers will be limited to ensure a productive learning environment, so really registration is recommended.

Workshop leader: Andrea Robertson, Principal of Birth International, author of 'Empowering Women—Teaching active birth' and consultant in childbirth education.
